Focus on Business Lee's Shops at Wagner Square 24 Church Street Canajoharie, NY

Lee's Shops opened on October 1st with a soft opening for a few days and then opened to the world on October 4th, 2017. Lee's Shops consist of three retail destinations, brand new to the Mohawk Valley, all housed in the historic Wagner Square of downtown Canajoharie, NY, in the gorgeous corner building, originally the Spraker Bank, built in the year 1860, is now the Lee's Shops at Wagner Square, named for its founder, Frederick W. Lee. The shops have received a great reception from the local community as well as the areas that they are reaching out to with marketing from the Capital District, Cooperstown, Schoharie County, Herkimer County, and Fulton County as well as attracting business from people who are getting off exit 29 on their way to other destinations. Lee's Shops has had a regular staff of 4 people with additional seasonal help. During the Christmas season Lee's Shops employed 9 elves that were there to accompany Santa when he was there every Thursday night and Saturday afternoon as well as assist customers throughout the week. Santa was at Lee's Shops right up until December 23 and then returned back to the North Pole to get ready for his big night!! Lee's Shops has been very busy since their opening and are looking forward to this upcoming year. Christmas was a great draw with their Lee's Christmas Corner, which drew people into Canajoharie from all over the Capital region! Lee's Shops at Wagner Square will be a year round gift shop filled with great items for your home, your child, and any great items for your home, your child, and any
